

World Ovarian Cancer Coalition

The World Ovarian Cancer Coalition is a not-for-profit organisation, formally established in 2016, working across the globe to achieve their vision of a world where every woman with ovarian cancer has the best chance of survival, and the best quality of life – wherever she may live.

Specifically, the World Ovarian Cancer Coalition:

- Supports development of a thriving and impactful global patient advocacy movement by:
  - Show-casing and promoting work of member orgs (~170 in 47 countries)
  - Providing evidence and resources to support members to be impactful in their own countries
  - Helping to develop patient advocacy groups where none currently exist
- Works to raise awareness of ovarian cancer:
  - Signs, symptoms and risks
  - Global burden of the disease to be recognised as a global priority
- Brings the global ovarian cancer community together (patients, advocacy organisations, clinicians, policy makers and industry) to look for solutions to challenges and gaps

We have supported this group since 2020.
