

Meningitis Research Foundation

Meningitis Research Foundation (MRF) is a leading UK, Irish and international charity that brings together people and expertise to defeat meningitis and septicaemia wherever it exists www.meningitis.org

We have supported this group since 2004.

During 2022:

GSK provided £167,307 of funding to MRF to support

- Meningitis - counting the cost project
- Global Meningitis Genome Partnership
- Integrated Global Awareness project
- 2022 MRF International Meningitis Symposium
- Meningitis Progress Tracker
- No Family Left Behind project
- Research to Policy Accelerator
- Roadmap Engagement & Advocacy Programme (REAP)
- Strengthening Patient Voices
- CoMO Members' Conference
- Expert consultation to GSK on Meningitis Disease Awareness

Our support represented 5.1% of their overall income in 2022

During 2021:

GSK provided £125,000 of funding to MRF to support:

- Development of the Meningitis Progress Tracker
- WH Roadmap Engagement & Advocacy Programme
- Strengthening Patient Voices project
- World Meningitis Day project
- MRF Scientific Conference

Our support represented 3.7% of their overall income.

During 2020:

GSK provided £130,000 of funding to MRF to support:

Global patient organisation funding

- Strengthening the patient voice in Europe, building global meningitis advocacy and a global meningitis research network.
- Continued development of the Global Meningitis Genome Partnership and Meningitis Progress Tracker.
- A Meningitis Symposium series.

Our support represented 5.6% of their overall income in 2020.